

Week ending 01/13/2017

HEADMASTER HIGHLIGHTS! ▶▶▶

SPCS Families,

I hope everyone enjoyed their week and is looking forward to a nice 3 day weekend. This past week we took time to recognize the outstanding efforts of our students at honors chapel. Thank you, students for giving your best this past semester and thank you parents and teachers for your continued partnership with SPCS.

The rest of January will be filled with many activities. Boys and girls "Saints Classic" basketball tournaments and Spirit Week is just a couple of things coming soon. Please use the Spotlight to continue to stay informed.

"Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father" (James 1:17a).

Have a great weekend!

◀◀◀ DID YOU MEET THE NEW LIBRARIAN?

First grader, Luke H., worked hard on Thursday as he filled the roll of Librarian for the day. It was all part of his parent's winning bid at this year's "On the Island" Auction. Luke checked books in and out, helped teach the lessons, and had a milkshake with Mrs. Hunter. He did a great job and had an even better time!

Thanks for taking care of the Library for us Luke!

CELEBRATE DIVERSITY! ▶▶▶

We have begun gearing up for our first annual Cultural Diversity Celebration Week taking place February 6th-10th. This week, students began engaging in a variety of learning activities to promote a deeper understanding and appreciation for the diversity that exists among us!

Mrs. Inverso's Kindergarten class was creative explaining what diversity means to them. They are so wise at such a young age!
